BRAND PRESENTATION

Our Vision

REINVENTING THE CLASSICS

Impatia embodies creativity and a flair for design in everything it does. Uniting the traditions of Italian design, art and craftsmanship to produce bespoke luxury game tables.

At it's core, the company manifests the principle of daring distinct design that pushes the boundaries of the game table industry.

Tailor Made in Italy

HANDCRAFTED FOR YOU

Whether it is in the design, the craftsmanship or the materials used, Impatia always draws upon the highest quality of Italian traditions and innovations to create something that is harmonized between classic and modern. Impatia collaborates with talented artisans from across the country to bring to light creations that are one-of-a-kind and entirely made in Italy.

Designers

IMPATIA R&D

Founders Irene Prandoni and Gregg Brodarick lead the creative process at Impatia, developing design products that showcase beautiful aesthetics along with functionality. Both with a background in architecture, the Italian and American duo bring a unique tailor-made experience that constantly aims to push the boundaries of the game table industry and bring a flair to the DNA of Impatia.

Product designer Lucia Guazzi, graduated from Politecnico Milano, is part of Impatia's research and development team helping develop a range of design products within the collection. With a balance between technical knowledge and creative ability, Guazzi elevates the Impatia's R&D team into creating design objects that showcase a beautiful way to have fun.

Designers

ADRIANO DESIGN

The Torino based design studio Adriano Design, formed by brothers Davide and Gabriele Adriano, designed the crystal Lungolinea table tennis and Filotto billiard table for Impatia. Established in 1997, the studio has worked in collaboration with prominent global brands. Their wide range of work has also been displayed in some of the most distinguished museums, including the Triennale Design Museum in Milan and the Chicago Athenaeum. They have received numerous international awards, including the Compasso d'Oro ADI 2014.

ENRICO AZZIMONTI

Architect and Designer of the Unootto crystal glass poker table for Impatia. Driven by a passion for innovation and Italian industrial design, Azzimonti established his studio in 1994 and since then has researched and developed products for Italian and international brands. He has won numerous awards, including the Platinum A'Design Award in 2017, and selections of his projects are permanently shown in The Design Museum of Barcelona.

GAME SET AND MORE

Among a strong focus on developing one of kind game tables it is just as equally important to focus on the accessories. As a result, Impatia offers a range of luxury game accessories that complement each table perfectly. Extending the use of high-quality materials and Italian craftsmanship each accessory set is carefully thought out and designed to perfection

Precious Leather

GAME SET COLLECTION

This collection of accessories, presented and designed by the IMPATIA R&D team, seeks to highlight a balance between vivid colors and the natural textures combined in this luxurious type of leather. The Minimalist and timeless design is juxtaposed with the traditions of master leatherworkers through chromed metal elements, which create a play of light and reflections in contrast to the natural materials.
